

Dangerous: A Mural Arts Competition

Green Door Gallery

Entry Deadline: August 1, 2017

120 N. Main St.
Livingston, MT 59047
Phone (406) 333-2330

“There is nothing more dangerous than someone who wants to make the world a better place.” ~ Banksy

A Banksy-Inspired Mural Arts Competition: Everything is political. If you love Livingston, this is the exhibition for you. Art that resonates with a politically driven Banksy-esque statement is welcome. Art that wakes us up, increases our awareness of the world we live in...our sharing of the land, the water, the air; our care and protection of bison, grizzly, wolves, our elders, our children, our speech, what are the issues for you... art that demonstrates concern and celebration of the town and the land where we live.

The exhibition will be juried by a panel of locals. All art must be ready to hang and sized at one of the following: 42H x 32W; 21Hx16W; 21Hx21W; 21Hx36W. The gallery utilizes a wire hanging system.

First prize is $1,500 and will be awarded at the reception September 22, 2017. The winning piece will be painted by the artist onto the side of the building that houses the Green Door Gallery. An additional $500 will be awarded after the mural is completed.

Entry fee is $35 (for 1-2 pieces)

Artwork may be dropped off from July 1 – August 1, 2017
Green Door Gallery
Attn: Lisa Snow Beaudin
120 N. Main St. Livingston, MT 59047
Phone (406) 333-2330

Opening Reception: September 22, 2017

Artists juried into the show will be notified after the panel has made its decisions.

The exhibition will run September 22 – October 20, 2017